SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

RAPID TRANSPORTATION

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (but lays expected) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Quicker Time

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Agent, First door east of Hyatt House.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are ever, way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and terms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

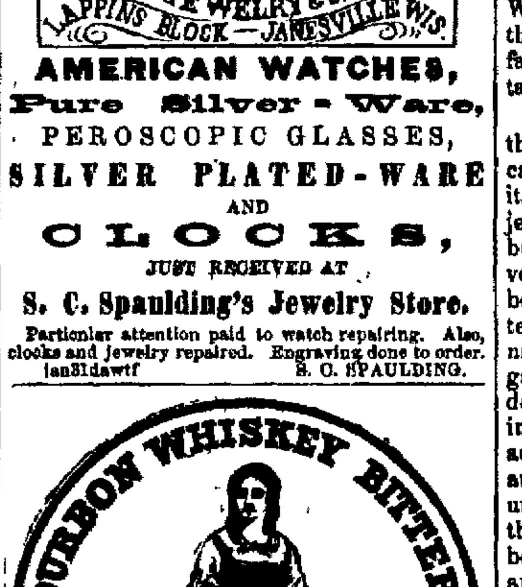

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - - $2,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

And for that we are indebted to the kindness, unintentional, no doubt, of your distinguished senator, now a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Douglas—[laughter]—who, in procuring the abrogation of the Missouri compromise, so shattered the columns of these parties, as to disintegrate them, and instantly there was the material, the preparation, for the onslaught.

Still there was wanted an occasion; and that occasion was given, when, in an hour of madness, the democratic party and administration, with the sympathy, at least the acquiesence, of the old line whigs and the native Americans, refused to allow the state of Kansas to exercise the perfect freedom in choosing between liberty and slavery, which they had promised to her, except she should exercise it in favor of slavery. Then came the hour. We had then, fellow-citizens, the material for a party;—we had the occasion for a party; and the republican party sprang into existence at once, full armed. I will never knowingly do evil that good may come of it; I will never even wish that others may do evil that good may come of it; and for the simple reason that I know evil to be certain, and the good only possible or problematical. But no man ever rejoiced more heartily over the birth of his first born, than I did when I saw the folly and madness of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the rejection of Kansas. [Applause.]—These acts, I said to myself, are the doings of Presidents, of Senators, of Judges, of Priests and of Deacons; and when the republican party organized itself, I said now is the work complete. [Good! Good!]

How much I have been cheered in this long contest, by seeing that only stolen, surreptitious advantages were gained by slavery in the form of rescripts and edicts and laws on the statute book; while the cause of freedom brought in, first California, claiming freedom; next Kansas; next Minnesota; and next Oregon; you may all know, if you possibly remember the song of joy, not so poetic, but as full of truth and happiness, as the song of Miriam, which I then uttered, declaring that that was the end and the victory was won. (Loud applause.) The battle is ended and the victory is ours. Why then, say they, why not withdraw from the field? For the simple season that if the victor retire from the field, the vanquished will then come back, and the battle will not be won. Why should the victor withdraw, and surrender all his conquests to the conquered enemy?—Why should he place the enemy back upon the field, and withdraw his legions into the far distance, to give him a chance to re-establish the line that has been broken up?

This republican party will now complete this great revolution. I know it will, because, in the first place, it clearly perceives its duties. It is unanimous upon this subject. We have had hesitation heretofore, but the creed to which I have already adverted, which issued from that council chamber now before me, announced the true determination, and embodies that great living, national idea of freedom, with which I began. I know that the republican party will do it, because it finds the necessary forces in all the free states adequate, I trust, to achieve success, and has forces in reserve, and increasing, in every slave state in the union, and only waiting until the success of the republican party in the free states will be such as to warrant protection to debate, and free suffrage in the slave states. (Applause.) But, above all, I know it, because the republican party has what is necessary in every revolution, chosen the right line of policy. It is the policy of peace and moral suasion; of freedom and suffrage; the policy, not of force, but of reason.—(Applause.) It returns kindness for unkindness; fervently increased loyalty for demonstrations of disloyalty; patience as becomes the strong in contention with the weak. Applause.)

It leaves the subject of slavery in the slave states to the care and responsibility of the slave states alone—[loud cheers]—abiding by the constitution of the country, which makes the slave states on this subject sovereign; and, trusting that the end cannot be wrong, provided that it shall confine itself within its legitimate line of duty, thereby making freedom paramount in the federal government, and making it the interest of every American citizen to sustain it as such. I know that the republican party will succeed in this, because it is a positive and an active party. It is the only party in the country that is or can be positive in its action. You have three other parties or forms of parties, but each of them without the characteristics of a party. You are to choose. The citizen is to choose between the republican party and one of these.

Try them now by their candidates. Mr. Lincoln represents the republican party.—[Hearty applause.] He represents a party which has determined that not one more slave shall be imported from Africa, or transferred from any slave state, domestic or foreign, and placed upon the common soil of the United States. [Cheers.] If you elect him, you know, and the world knows what you have got. Take the case of Mr. John Bell, an honorable man, a kind man and a very learned man, a very patriotic man; a man whom I respect, and in social intercourse quite as much as everywhere else, as here where my word may be regarded as simply complimentary; but what does Mr. John Bell, and his constitutional Union—what is the name of his party? Constitutional—Union, is it not? [Laughter.] What does Mr. Bell and his constitutional union party propose on this question? He proposes to ignore it altogether; not to know that there is such a question. If we can suppose such a thing possible as Mr. Bell's election by the people, what then? He ignored the question until the day of election came, but it will not stay ignored. Kansas comes and asks or demands to be admitted into the Union. The Indian Territory, also, south of Kansas, must be vacated by the Indians and here at once the slaveholders present the question as they will also do in the case of New Mexico. It will not stay ignored. It will not rest. It cannot rest. You have postponed the decision for four years, and that is all. Postponing does not settle it. When defending law suits, I have seen times when I thought I won a great advantage by getting an adjournment, [laughter,] but I always found nevertheless that it was a great deal better to be beaten in the first instance, and try it again, than to hang my

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety, Misses Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description.
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Rubleand Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Terms Cash.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

And for that we are indebted to the kindness, unintentional, no doubt, of your distinguished senator, now a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Douglas—[laughter]—who, in procuring the abrogation of the Missouri compromise, so shattered the columns of these parties, as to disintegrate them, and instantly there was the material, the preparation, for the onslaught.

Still there was wanted an occasion; and that occasion was given, when, in an hour of madness, the democratic party and administration, with the sympathy, at least the acquiesence, of the old line whigs and the native Americans, refused to allow the state of Kansas to exercise the perfect freedom in choosing between liberty and slavery, which they had promised to her, except she should exercise it in favor of slavery. Then came the hour. We had then, fellow-citizens, the material for a party;—we had the occasion for a party; and the republican party sprang into existence at once, full armed. I will never knowingly do evil that good may come of it; I will never even wish that others may do evil that good may come of it; and for the simple reason that I know evil to be certain, and the good only possible or problematical. But no man ever rejoiced more heartily over the birth of his first born, than I did when I saw the folly and madness of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the rejection of Kansas. [Applause.]—These acts, I said to myself, are the doings of Presidents, of Senators, of Judges, of Priests and of Deacons; and when the republican party organized itself, I said now is the work complete. [Good! Good!]

How much I have been cheered in this long contest, by seeing that only stolen, surreptitious advantages were gained by slavery in the form of rescripts and edicts and laws on the statute book; while the cause of freedom brought in, first California, claiming freedom; next Kansas; next Minnesota; and next Oregon; you may all know, if you possibly remember the song of joy, not so poetic, but as full of truth and happiness, as the song of Miriam, which I then uttered, declaring that that was the end and the victory was won. (Loud applause.) The battle is ended and the victory is ours. Why then, say they, why not withdraw from the field? For the simple season that if the victor retire from the field, the vanquished will then come back, and the battle will not be won. Why should the victor withdraw, and surrender all his conquests to the conquered enemy?—Why should he place the enemy back upon the field, and withdraw his legions into the far distance, to give him a chance to re-establish the line that has been broken up?

This republican party will now complete this great revolution. I know it will; because, in the first place, it clearly perceives its duties. It is unanimous upon this subject. We have had hesitation heretofore, but the creed to which I have already adverted, which issued from that council chamber now before me, announced the true determination, and embodies that great living, national idea of freedom, with which I began. I know that the republican party will do it, because it finds the necessary forces in all the free states adequate, I trust, to achieve success, and has forces in reserve, and increasing, in every slave state in the union, and only waiting until the success of the republican party in the free states will be such as to warrant protection to debate, and free suffrage in the slave states. (Applause.) But, above all, I know it, because the republican party has what is necessary in every revolution, chosen the right line of policy. It is the policy of peace and moral suasion; of freedom and suffrage, the policy, not of force, but of reason.—(Applause.) It returns kindness for unkindness; fervently increased loyalty for demonstrations of disloyalty; patience as becomes the strong in contention with the weak. Applause.)

It leaves the subject of slavery in the slave states to the care and responsibility of the slave states alone—[loud cheers]—abiding by the constitution of the country, which makes the slave states on this subject sovereign; and, trusting that the end cannot be wrong, provided that it shall confine itself within its legitimate line of duty, thereby making freedom paramount in the federal government, and making it the interest of every American citizen to sustain it as such. I know that the republican party will succeed in this, because it is a positive and an active party. It is the only party in the country that is or can be positive in its action. You have three other parties or forms of parties, but each of them without the characteristics of a party. You are to choose. The citizen is to choose between the republican party and one of these.

Try them now by their candidates. Mr. Lincoln represents the republican party.—[Hearty applause.] He represents a party which has determined that not one more slave shall be imported from Africa, or transferred from any slave state, domestic or foreign, and placed upon the common soil of the United States. [Cheers.] If you elect him, you know, and the world knows what you have got. Take the case of Mr. John Bell, an honorable man, a kind man; and a very learned man, a very patriotic man; a man whom I respect, and in social intercourse quite as much as everywhere else, as here where my word may be regarded as simply complimentary; but what does Mr. John Bell, and his constitutional Union—what is the name of his party? Constitutional—Union, is it not? [Laughter.] What does Mr. Bell and his constitutional union party propose on this question? He proposes to ignore it altogether; not to know that there is such a question. If we can suppose such a thing possible as Mr. Bell's election by the people, what then? He ignored the question until the day of election came, but it will not stay ignored. Kansas comes and asks or demands to be admitted into the Union. The Indian Territory, also, south of Kansas, must be vacated by the Indians and here at once the slaveholders present the question as they will also do in the case of New Mexico. It will not stay ignored. It will not rest. It cannot rest. You have postponed the decision for four years, and that is all. Postponing does not settle it. When defending law suits, I have seen times when I thought I won a great advantage by getting an adjournment, [laughter,] but I always found nevertheless that it was a great deal better to be beaten in the first instance, and try it again, than to hang my

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, bot in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description.
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

And for that we are indebted to the kindness, unintentional, no doubt, of your distinguished senator, now a candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Douglas—[laughter]—who, in procuring the abrogation of the Missouri compromise, so shattered the columns of these parties, as to disintegrate them, and instantly there was the material, the preparation, for the onslaught.

Still there was wanted an occasion; and that occasion was given, when, in an hour of madness, the democratic party and administration, with the sympathy, at least the acquiesence, of the old line whigs and the native Americans, refused to allow the state of Kansas to exercise the perfect freedom in choosing between liberty and slavery, which they had promised to her, except she should exercise it in favor of slavery. Then came the hour. We had then, fellow-citizens, the material for a party;—we had the occasion for a party; and the republican party sprang into existence at once, full armed. I will never knowingly do evil that good may come of it; I will never even wish that others may do evil that good may come of it; and for the simple reason that I know evil to be certain, and the good only possible or problematical. But no man ever rejoiced more heartily over the birth of his first born, than I did when I saw the folly and madness of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the rejection of Kansas. [Applause.]—These acts, I said to myself, are the doings of Presidents, of Senators, of Judges, of Priests and of Deacons; and when the republican party organized itself, I said now is the work complete. [Good! Good!]

How much I have been cheered in this long contest, by seeing that only stolen, surreptitious advantages were gained by slavery in the form of rescripts and edicts and laws on the statute book; while the cause of freedom brought in, first California, claiming freedom; next Kansas; next Minnesota; and next Oregon; you may all know, if you possibly remember the song of joy, not so poetic, but as full of truth and happiness, as the song of Miriam, which I then uttered, declaring that that was the end and the victory was won. (Loud applause.) The battle is ended and the victory is ours. Why then, say they, why not withdraw from the field? For the simple season that if the victor retire from the field, the vanquished will then come back, and the battle will not be won. Why should the victor withdraw, and surrender all his conquests to the conquered enemy?—Why should he place the enemy back upon the field, and withdraw his legions into the far distance, to give him a chance to re-establish the line that has been broken up?

This republican party will now complete this great revolution. I know it will, because, in the first place, it clearly perceives its duties. It is unanimous upon this subject. We have had hesitation heretofore, but the creed to which I have already adverted, which issued from that council chamber now before me, announced the true determination, and embodies that great living, national idea of freedom, with which I began. I know that the republican party will do it, because it finds the necessary forces in all the free states adequate, I trust, to achieve success, and has forces in reserve, and increasing, in every slave state in the union, and only waiting until the success of the republican party in the free states will be such as to warrant protection to debate, and free suffrage in the slave states. (Applause.) But, above all, I know it, because the republican party has what is necessary in every revolution, chosen the right line of policy. It is the policy of peace and moral suasion; of freedom and suffrage; the policy, not of force; but of reason.—(Applause.) It returns kindness for unkindness; fervently increased loyalty for demonstrations of disloyalty; patience as becomes the strong in contention with the weak. Applause.)

It leaves the subject of slavery in the slave states to the care and responsibility of the slave states alone—[loud cheers]—abiding by the constitution of the country, which makes the slave states on this subject sovereign; and, trusting that the end cannot be wrong, provided that it shall confine itself within its legitimate line of duty, thereby making freedom paramount in the federal government, and making it the interest of every American citizen to sustain it as such. I know that the republican party will succeed in this, because it is a positive and an active party. It is the only party in the country that is or can be positive in its action. You have three other parties or forms of parties, but each of them without the characteristics of a party. You are to choose. The citizen is to choose between the republican party and one of these.

Try them now by their candidates. Mr. Lincoln represents the republican party.—[Hearty applause.] He represents a party which has determined that not one more slave shall be imported from Africa, or transferred from any slave state, domestic or foreign, and placed upon the common soil of the United States. [Cheers.] If you elect him, you know, and the world knows what you have got. Take the case of Mr. John Bell, an honorable man, a kind man and a very learned man, a very patriotic man; a man whom I respect, and in social intercourse quite as much as everywhere else, as here where my word may be regarded as simply complimentary; but what does Mr. John Bell, and his constitutional Union—what is the name of his party? Constitutional—Union, is it not? [Laughter.] What does Mr. Bell and his constitutional union party propose on this question? He proposes to ignore it altogether; not to know that there is such a question. If we can suppose such a thing possible as Mr. Bell's election by the people, what then? He ignored the question until the day of election came, but it will not stay ignored. Kansas comes and asks or demands to be admitted into the Union. The Indian Territory, also, south of Kansas, must be vacated by the Indians and here at once the slaveholders present the question as they will also do in the case of New Mexico. It will not stay ignored. It will not rest. It cannot rest. You have postponed the decision for four years, and that is all. Postponing does not settle it. When defending law suits, I have seen times when I thought I won a great advantage by getting an adjournment, [laughter,] but I always found nevertheless that it was a great deal better to be beaten in the first instance, and try it again, than to hang my

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Assembly Nominations.

The republicans of the Beloit district have nominated S. S. Northrup, Esq., of Clinton, as their candidate for the assembly. Mr. Northrup is one of the staunch farmers of our county, is a man of ability, and will make a good legislator.

In the south-west district the republicans have nominated James Kirkpatrick, Esq., of Spring Valley. This is an excellent nomination. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a farmer, and an honest, straight-forward and thorough-going republican. The interests of his district will be faithfully attended to, while the general affairs of state legislation will meet with prompt, ready and intelligent action on his part.

The republican assembly nominations have all been made in this county except in the Fulton district, and we congratulate our friends, so far, upon their success in bringing forward their best men. Rock county will this year be as well represented as she ever has been in our state legislature.

Elections To-Morrow.—Elections will be held to-morrow in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, for state officers and members of congress. These elections are regarded as important, because they are supposed to foreshadow the result of the presidential elections. The democrats are united in all these states upon their state tickets, while they will be divided at the presidential election, and a defeat of the republicans in any one of these states to-morrow will not, therefore, make it certain that a like result will happen in November.

Immense Vineyard.—There are about four thousand acres laid out in vineyards in the state of Ohio, of which nearly one-half are in the immediate vicinity of Cincinnati. It is anticipated that with good weather the Ohio vineyards will yield 1,600,000 gallons of wine this year.

A Long Ride by Rail.—There is now a continuous chain of railroads from Bangor to New Orleans, composed of eighteen independent roads, costing in the aggregate, for 2,344 miles of road, $50,354,084, or nearly one-tenth of the whole railway system in the United States.

The Votes on the Cars.

It is evident that the number of Douglas men in Chicago was not much increased by the demonstration on Friday, from the fact that the votes taken on the trains, running into that city on that day, showed almost as many republicans as democrats. Many republicans visited Chicago on that occasion because they had a curiosity to see Douglas, and as they could indulge this curiosity and attend to such business as they might have at the cost of only a dollar, a large number availed themselves of the opportunity. Hence the great republican strength on every train running into Chicago. Here are some of the votes taken, as reported to the Press and Tribune:

On the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Freeport, a vote was taken which resulted:

Douglas	310
Lincoln	325
Bell	4

This was inclusive of ladies, and comprised every person on the train. It was taken again and of voters only, as follows:

Douglas	197
Lincoln	157
Bell	3

In a car on the St. Louis, Alton and Chicago road of half-fare tickets, the vote stood:

Lincoln	23
Douglas	21
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1

On the morning train over the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Fulton City, the whole number of passengers, including women and children, conductor, brakemen, engineer, and fireman, was 96; whole number of votes 52, as follows:

Douglas	24
Lincoln	23
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1
Refused to vote	3

There were but 37 passengers on this train when it arrived at DeKalb. Seven coaches in the train, and an extra locomotive and additional cars, had been provided at one of the stations, in anticipation of the crowd.

On the Pittsburgh, Chicago and Fort Wayne the morning train was tested as follows:

Douglas	312
Lincoln	287

These were of excursionists, at half fare. A second count gave the entire vote of passengers, counting every person on board, and gave Lincoln fifty-seven majority.

The vote taken on the train from Beloit yesterday morning resulted as follows:

	Total.	Voters.
Douglas	196	189
Lincoln	157	130

A vote was taken on the train from Burlington which gave a majority of two for Lincoln, as follows:

Lincoln	54
Douglas	52

On the Chicago and Northwestern railroad the morning train brought one company of fifty "Invincibles" in uniform, notwithstanding which fact the vote stood:

Douglas	223
Lincoln	144

Coming back, on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad on Saturday with the "Invincibles" on board, a vote was taken and resulted as follows:

Douglas	205
Lincoln	146

These facts show that the demonstration was only saved from a most shameful fizzle by the attendance of republicans.

The Douglas Joke.

Every well informed man has regarded Douglas' chances for the presidency as utterly hopeless, and the prospect of his getting the electoral vote of even one state so small that it could not be seen except with the telescopes of wonderful magnifying power which the Douglas men claim to have invented for the purposes of this campaign. The only thing that has relieved the whole concern from being considered the greatest farce ever played was the belief that some of the Douglas men were in earnest. But it seems this was a great mistake. The Democrat comes out this morning and throws off all disguise, treats the Douglas movement as a mere stage trick, not expected to deceive any one.

We have done the Democrat injustice; we have been greatly astonished at its astounding canards, and while we thought it in earnest expressed our opinion of its statements, but it seems it has been trying to sell us. It comes out this morning in its true character, and works the Munchausen vein openly. It says that republicans themselves concede that the Douglas meeting at Chicago infinitely surpassed the Seward demonstration, and that now Old Abe himself gives up Illinois!

Enough said. While we thought the Democrat sincere and meant to deceive we commented on its articles, but now, being satisfied it does not intend to deceive any one, but means to lie so outrageously that the meanest capacity will understand it, and regards the whole Douglas movement as the best joke of the season, we have nothing further to say.

A Conversion.—We hear of one conversion to Douglasism by the speech of the Great Squatter at Chicago. A gentleman of this city who has heretofore been for Breckinridge, declares that on the question of slavery, Douglas is just as sound as Breckinridge, and he therefore intends to support the former. We never could see why a Breckinridge interventionist in favor of slavery should object to Douglas, who declares that according to the decision of the supreme court of the United States, slaves being property, stand on an equal footing with all other property; and that there is just as much obligation on the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors, &c. See Congressional Globe 1858–9, part 2, page 1258.

What is the use in going for Breckinridge when Douglas is eminently sound on slave codes for the territories?

☞ There is a rumor that Garibaldi has become reconciled to his wife, and that they are about to live together.

Accident on the La Crosse Road.—As the mail train was approaching Richfield station on the La Crosse railroad, on the 6th, a fireman named William Cady, fell between the cars and was run over, severing one of his legs from his body, and otherwise injuring him so that he died soon afterwards.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

hopes upon an adjournment. [Renewed laughter and applause.]

Take the other: Mr. Breckinridge represents a party that proposes a policy the very opposite of ours. They propose to extend slavery and to use the federal government to do it. Let us suppose him elected. Will that satisfy the American people? [cries of "No, no!"] Will that settle the question? [No, no!] That is only what Mr. Buchanan has already done. And if I should put a vote to this audience I am sure I should get no vote of confidence in Mr. Buchanan [No, no, no!] That is of course. But if I were to go into a Bell-and-Everett National-Union party meeting, as vast as this, and ask for a vote of confidence of James Buchanan, they would say No, just as emphatically as you do. In the demonstration for Mr. Douglas, which is to be made here day after to-morrow—I shall not be here, and would not have the right to appear if I were—but any of you have the right by their leave, and you ought not to do it without, to offer and put to vote a resolution of confidence in James Buchanan, and you would get precisely the same negative response that you get here, only a little louder. [Applause and laughter.] Then the people are not going to elect Mr. Breckinridge, because he proposes to follow in the footsteps of Mr. Buchanan, who is rejected. Grant, however, that owing to some strange misapprehenson, or some strange combination, they may obtain all they hope, and indirectly, if not directly make Mr. Breckinridge President. Suppose Mr. Breckinridge is elected. Does that settle the question in favor of slavery? Then you will have the combination, not only of the republicans, and the constitutional union party, and the Douglas party, to drive him out again, [laughter] but you have only postponed the question for four years more under circumstances far more serious, possibly fatal.

You have now disposed of them all except the Douglas party. Mr. Douglas' party is not a positive party. It proposes just what the Bell party propose—to ignore the question in congress. That is just what we find the people will not do, and will not be content to do under John Bell. Why should they like it better under Mr. Douglas? Mr. Douglas and his party say there is a better way. They don't want it ignored, but that it belongs to the territories, and they can settle it better and more wisely than we can. What can they do? Have they settled it in their territories in favor of slavery? Are you, the people of the free states, going to consent to that? If they were, why did they not consent to the proposition of the President, that the people of Kansas should be subjected to slavery under the Lecompton constitution? Then, they said, that was the act of the people. But if the people of the territory should decide in favor of freedom, are the slave states going to acquiesce? No, because they have their candidate in the person of Mr. Breckinridge to continue the war, until they shall regain the lost battle.

But Mr. Douglas' proposition may result in a different way. He says, if I understand him rightly, that it is immaterial to him, at least, he has no right and does not propose to decide upon the question, whether they vote slavery up or down. [Laughter.] Then they will vote slavery up in some territories, and vote it down in some other territories. That, fellow citizens, will be compromise; are you going to be satisfied with a new compromise? You have tried them, and found that they are never kept. On the whole, you are very sorry that they were ever made.

But is a compromise that is brought about in that way, the irresponsible act of squatter sovereignty in the territories, to satisfy the slave states? They have repudiated Mr. Douglas, the ablest man among them all, they have repudiated him altogether, because they will not be satisfied with a squatter sovereignty that gives any territory whatever to the free states.

I have now demonstrated to you, I think, that the republican party is the only positive party. But I can show it by another argument. The republican party has one faith, one creed, one baptism, one candidate, and will have but one victory. [Applause.] The power of slavery has three creeds, three faiths, and is to have three victories. [Laughter.] They have openly confessed, or, rather, the secret leaks out, through conversations and consultations; that they do not expect to get a single victory, any more than you expect they will. All their hope and endeavor is to defeat the republican party, and take the chances for a share of the fruits to result from your defeat. [Applause.]

Suppose they should, by combinations and coalitions, secure the defeat of the republican party, are you going to stay defeated? [Cries of no, no.] You have been defeated once, have you not? Can you not bear another defeat? [Yes, half a dozen of them.] You will not have to I am sure. [Laughter] But I am supposing for the purpose of argument that we are defeated by a coalition. Did any one ever know a cause that was lost when it was defeated by a coalition? [No.] There was a coalition in Europe five years ago in which Hungary was defeated by the coalition of Austria with Russia; but Hungary has risen up again to-day, and the coalition is understood to be dissolved. [Applause.] There was a coalition two or three years later, in which Russia was defeated by the combination of France and England, but Russia is just as strong, just as steadily pressing on upon Constantinople, to-day, as she has been every day from the time of the Czar Peter until now. And while she has abated nothing of her purposes, and nothing of hope, and has gained strength. So, all the efforts of the statesmen of both France and England, are required to keep them from falling out with each other before the battle begins. There is no danger, and not much disgrace in being beaten by coalitions; and there is no danger, because they are coalitions. The more the coalitions are necessary, the less are they effectual. One party is always stronger than two other parties, in a contest, unles the whole result is staked upon a single battle.

But, fellow citizens, the explanation of the whole matter is, that there is a time when the nation needs and will require and demand the settlement of subjects of contention. That time has come at last, when the parties in this country, both of the free states and of the slaveholding states, both the free laboring man and of the slaveholder, will require an end—a settlement of the conflict. It must be repressed. The time has come to repress it. The people will have it repressed. They are not to be forever disputing upon old issues and controversies. New subjects for national action will come up. This controversy must be settled and ended. The republican party is the agent, and its success will terminate the contest about slavery in the new states. Let this battle be decided in favor of freedom in the territories, and not one slave will ever be carried into the territories of the United States, and that will end the irrepressible conflict. (Great applause.)

And because it is necessary that it should be done, is exactly the reason why it will be done. It cannot be settled otherwise, because it involves a question of justice and of conscience. It is for us not merely a question of policy, but a question of moral right and duty. It is wrong, in our judgment, to perpetuate by our votes, or to extend slavery.

It is a very different thing when the slaveholder proposes to extend slavery, for that is, with him, only a question of merchandize. Men, of whatever race or nation, in our estimation, are men, not merchandize. According to our faith, they all have a natural right to be men; but in the estimation of the other party African slaves are not men, but merchandize. It is, therefore, nothing more or less with them than a tariff question—question of protecting commerce. With us it is a question of human rights; and therefore, when it is settled, it will stay settled just as every question that is settled in favor of the right always does.

But if it be taken merely as a matter of policy, it is equally plain that it will be settled in favor of the republican side, because our honest policy is the development of the resources and the increase of the population, wealth and strength of the republic. Every man sees for himself, and no man need be told that the coal, the iron, the lead, the copper, the gold and the silver in our mountains and plains are to be dug out by human hands; and that the only human hands which can dig them is the hand of a freeman. (Great applause.)

Every man sees that this wealth and strength and greatness are to be acquired by human labor, guided by human intelligence and human purpose. Every man knows that the slave, even if he be a white man, will have neither the strength nor the intelligence, nor the virtue to care to be wealthy, for the slave has a simple line of interest before him; it is to effect the least and consume the most. (Hear, hear.)

But, fellow citizens, I seem myself to have fallen below the dignity and greatness of this question in discussing a proposition whether slave labor or free labor is the more expedient, or more necessary. Let me rise once more, and remind you that we are building a new and great empire—not building it as modern Rome and Paris and Naples stand upon the ruins and over the graves of tenfold greater multitudes of men than those who now occupy their sites, but upon a soil where we are the first possessors and the first architects. The tomb and the catacomb in Rome and Paris and Naples are filled with relics and implements of human torture and human bondage, showing the ignorance and the barbarity of their former occupants. Let us, on the other hand, build up an empire that shall leave no monument or relic among our graves, and no trace in our history, to prove that we were false to the interests of humanity. Human nature is entitled to a home on this earth somewhere. Where else shall it be, if it not be here? Human nature is entitled, among all nations of the earth, to have a nation that will truly represent, defend and vindicate it. What other nation shall it be, if it be not ours?

People of Illinois! People of the great West! You are all youthful, vigorous and generous. Your states are youthful, vigorous and virtuous. The destinies of our country, the hopes of mankind, the hopes of humanity rest upon you. Ascend, I pray! you I conjure! you to the dignity of that high responsibility. Thus acting, you will have peace and harmony and happiness in your future years. The world, looking on, will applaud you, and future generations in all ages and in all regions will rise up and call you blessed. (Long continued cheering.)

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

New York, Oct. 8.

John Cochrane has received the Breckinridge nomination for congress in the 6th district. Paul P. Bradley had delined.—Chochrane had previously been nominated at Mozart Hall.

The Bell and Everett men of the 3d district have nominated Geo. Hewett for congress.

Francis Duffy, a deputy sheriff, is under arrest for the attempted murder of Jas. L. Dorkean of Brooklyn.

Peter H. Sabook was dangerously burned in attempting to extinguish a fire in Lightbody's Ink Manufactory on 16th street, on Sunday.

Albany, Oct. 8.

The canal tolls for the fourth week in September were $121,144, for same week last year $71,162. Aggregate receipts to October 1st, 1860 $2,033,412, same time in 1859 $1,145,210.

Savannah, Oct. 7.

The returns from Florida election come in slow. The result is uncertain. The Quincy (Florida) Republic says the people at Gadsden, Liberty, Jackson and Washington Counties are organizing a force to operate against a band of desparadoes who are committing outrages in Calhoun county. Many murders have been committed in Jackson county. The military have been called out.

The Market.

New York, Oct. 8.

Flour market about 5c better. Sales 4000 bbls, 5,30a5,35 super state, 5,35a5,55 extra state, 5,25a5,35 super western, 5,50a5,70 common to medium extra western, 5,70a5,75 inferior to good shipping brands extra R. H. Ohio. Canadian a shade better. Sales 600 bbls, 5,65a7,50 extra.—Wheat receipts 159,162 bu. Market 1a2c better with good export demand, sales 15,000 bu. at 1,18a1,22½ Chicago spring, 1,26a1,26 Mil. club, 1,32a1,33 winter, red western.

Milwaukee, Oct. 8.

Wheat rather quiet at Saturday's closing prices, and buyers indisposed to operate except at a slight concession, which holders were indisposed to grant. Principal transactions confined to No. 1 in bags delivered at 95. A few cars of buckwheat were taken at 93½a94 for No. 1, and 91½ for No. 2. Milling wheat in moderate request at 95a96 for club, and 97 choice extra. Flour remains quiet, and holders disposed to be firm.

The official returns of the several prominent western cities, for 1850 and 1860, are as follows:

CITIES.	1850.	1860.
St. Louis,	77,860	162,179
Cincinnati,	115,436	160,060
Chicago,	28,630	109,420
Louisville,	44,199	75,196
Milwaukee,	20,060	45,000
Detroit,	21,019	46,834
Cleveland,	17,034	45,550

Or an increase in the population of St. Louis since 1850 of about 110 per cent., Cincinnati 40 per cent., Louisville 75 per cent., Milwaukee 125 per cent., Detroit 125 per cent., Cleveland 230 per cent., Chicago 290 per cent.

Rev. Mr. Bewley not Hung.—The following paragraph from the Central (St. Louis) Christian Advocate of this week will be read with pleasure by all who have been shocked at the report of his assassination by a mob in Texas. The Advocate says:

In a postscript of a letter from the Rev. G. W. Fisher, dated Urbana, Mo., and postmarked Sept, 20th, we have the following: "We have it from good authority that Bro. Bewley is not hung, unless within three days. He is in the custody of an unfeeling clan of pro-slavery men. But he is also closely watched by his friends."

A Valuable Accession.—It affords us much pleasure to record the accession of ex-mayor Joseph Jackson, of Oshkosh, to the republican ranks. He has been a prominent and efficient democrat through all the phases of the party, from "addition to destruction," (as friend Orton would say,) and has finally taken open ground with the republicans, like an honest and conscientious man as he is. At the meeting at Winneconne, last week, to hear Mr. Codding, he put on the uniform of the Wide Awakes, joined their ranks, and proclaimed himself from that time forward a republican.

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate, than that these people [slaves] are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Notion, habit, opinion, have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the progress of emancipation and deportation, peaceably, and in a slow degree, as that the evil will wear off insensibly, and their places be, pari passu, filled up by free white laborers.—Life of Thos. Jefferson, by Gov. Tucker, Prof. in the University of Va., 1837.

DIED.

In Janesville, on Sunday, October 7th, Mr. JOSEPH BURDICK, aged 84 years.

The funeral will be attended at the house of his son, Col. Z. P. Burdick, to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.—Friends are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ladies Please Make Note of It.

THE Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, amid a host of competitors, received the First Premium of the United States Fair, held at Cincinnati, the Illinois State Fair, the Wisconsin State Fair, the Chicago Mechanic's Institute and scores of County Fairs held this fall throughout the West. The beauty, simplicity, durability and utility of this machine becomes more and more apparent by comparison with others.

VOL. 8. Wisconsin Reports, received this day, at NEWELL'S.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stirring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,

Proprietor of the

Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the

Petty Slop Shops

in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Clothing House

has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS

the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the

Cheapest Establishment

of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the

Oldest Clothing House in the City

feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.

The People of Rock County

are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce

A BOGUS LAW

upon them, to get them to purchase their

Fall and Winter Clothing

from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the

Largest and Best Stock of Clothing

of all kinds, including the finest

CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,

and the best variety of

BEAVER OVERCOATS!

ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,

of every description, with

Pants and Vests

to match, as well as any quantity of

Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,

and every article of

Wearing Apparrel

that man can want.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

Original Young America Clothing House

does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, The People Know It, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. McLEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

CHEAP CLOTHING,

to the

Original Young America Clothing House

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—an origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

New Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Assembly Nominations.

The republicans of the Beloit district have nominated S. S. Northrup, Esq., of Clinton, as their candidate for the assembly. Mr. Northrup is one of the staunch farmers of our county, is a man of ability, and will make a good legislator.

In the south-west district the republicans have nominated James Kirkpatrick, Esq., of Spring Valley. This is an excellent nomination. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a farmer, and an honest, straight-forward and thorough-going republican. The interests of his district will be faithfully attended to, while the general affairs of state legislation will meet with prompt, ready and intelligent action on his part.

The republican assembly nominations have all been made in this county except in the Fulton district, and we congratulate our friends, so far, upon their success in bringing forward their best men. Rock county will this year be as well represented as she ever has been in our state legislature.

ELECTIONS TO-MORROW.—Elections will be held to-morrow in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, for state officers and members of congress. These elections are regarded as important, because they are supposed to foreshadow the result of the presidential elections. The democrats are united in all these states upon their state tickets, while they will be divided at the presidential election, and a defeat of the republicans in any one of these states to-morrow will not, therefore, make it certain that a like result will happen in November.

IMMENSE VINEYARD.—There are about four thousand acres laid out in vineyards in the state of Ohio, of which nearly one-half are in the immediate vicinity of Cincinnati. It is anticipated that with good weather the Ohio vineyards will yield 1,600,000 gallons of wine this year.

A LONG RIDE BY RAIL.—There is now a continuous chain of railroads from Bangor to New Orleans, composed of eighteen independent roads, costing in the aggregate, for 2,344 miles of road, $50,354,084, or nearly one-tenth of the whole railway system in the United States.

The Votes on the Cars.

It is evident that the number of Douglas men in Chicago was not much increased by the demonstration on Friday, from the fact that the votes taken on the trains, running into that city on that day, showed almost as many republicans as democrats. Many republicans visited Chicago on that occasion because they had a curiosity to see Douglas, and as they could indulge this curiosity and attend to such business as they might have at the cost of only a dollar, a large number availed themselves of the opportunity. Hence the great republican strength on every train running into Chicago. Here are some of the votes taken, as reported to the Press and Tribune:

On the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Freeport, a vote was taken which resulted:

Douglas	310
Lincoln	325
Bell	4

This was inclusive of ladies, and comprised every person on the train. It was taken again and of voters only, as follows:

Douglas	197
Lincoln	157
Bell	3

In a car on the St. Louis, Alton and Chicago road of half-fare tickets, the vote stood:

Lincoln	23
Douglas	21
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1

On the morning train over the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Fulton City, the whole number of passengers, including women and children, conductor, brakemen, engineer, and fireman, was 96; whole number of votes 52, as follows:

Douglas	24
Lincoln	23
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1
Refused to vote	3

There were but 37 passengers on this train when it arrived at DeKalb. Seven coaches in the train, and an extra locomotive and additional cars, had been provided at one of the stations, in anticipation of the crowd.

On the Pittsburgh, Chicago and Fort Wayne the morning train was tested as follows:

Douglas	312
Lincoln	287

These were of excursionists, at half fare. A second count gave the entire vote of passengers, counting every person on board, and gave Lincoln fifty-seven majority.

The vote taken on the train from Beloit yesterday morning resulted as follows:

	Total.	Voters.
Douglas	196	189
Lincoln	157	130

A vote was taken on the train from Burlington which gave a majority of two for Lincoln, as follows:

Lincoln	54
Douglas	52

On the Chicago and Northwestern railroad the morning train brought one company of fifty "Invincibles" in uniform, notwithstanding which fact the vote stood:

Douglas	223
Lincoln	144

Coming back, on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad on Saturday with the "Invincibles" on board, a vote was taken and resulted as follows:

Douglas	205
Lincoln	146

These facts show that the demonstration was only saved from a most shameful fizzle by the attendance of republicans.

The Douglas Joke.

Every well informed man has regarded Douglas' chances for the presidency as utterly hopeless, and the prospect of his getting the electoral vote of even one state so small that it could not be seen except with the telescopes of wonderful magnifying power which the Douglas men claim to have invented for the purposes of this campaign. The only thing that has relieved the whole concern from being considered the greatest farce ever played was the belief that some of the Douglas men were in earnest. But it seems this was a great mistake. The Democrat comes out this morning and throws off all disguise, treats the Douglas movement as a mere stage trick, not expected to deceive any one.

We have done the Democrat injustice; we have been greatly astonished at its astounding canards, and while we thought it in earnest expressed our opinion of its statements, but it seems it has been trying to sell us. It comes out this morning in its true character, and works the Munchausen vein openly. It says that republicans themselves concede that the Douglas meeting at Chicago infinitely surpassed the Seward demonstration, and that now Old Abe himself gives up Illinois!

Enough said. While we thought the Democrat sincere and meant to deceive we commented on its articles, but now, being satisfied it does not intend to deceive any one, but means to lie so outrageously that the meanest capacity will understand it, and regards the whole Douglas movement as the best joke of the season, we have nothing further to say.

A CONVERSION.—We hear of one conversion to Douglasism by the speech of the Great Squatter at Chicago. A gentleman of this city who has heretofore been for Breckinridge, declares that on the question of slavery, Douglas is just as sound as Breckinridge, and he therefore intends to support the former. We never could see why a Breckinridge interventionist in favor of slavery should object to Douglas, who declares that according to the decision of the supreme court of the United States, slaves being property, stand on an equal footing with all other property; and that there is just as much obligation on the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors, &c. See Congressional Globe 1858–9, part 2, page 1258.

What is the use in going for Breckinridge when Douglas is eminently sound on slave codes for the territories?

☞ There is a rumor that Garibaldi has become reconciled to his wife, and that they are about to live together.

ACCIDENT ON THE LA CROSSE ROAD.—As the mail train was approaching Richfield station on the La Crosse railroad, on the 6th, a fireman named William Cady, fell between the cars and was run over, severing one of his legs from his body, and otherwise injuring him so that he died soon afterwards.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

hopes upon an adjournment. [Renewed laughter and applause.]

Take the other: Mr. Breckinridge represents a party that proposes a policy the very opposite of ours. They propose to extend slavery and to use the federal government to do it. Let us suppose him elected. Will that satisfy the American people? [cries of "No, no!"] Will that settle the question? [No, no!] That is only what Mr. Buchanan has already done. And if I should put a vote to this audience I am sure I should get no vote of confidence in Mr. Buchanan [No, no, no!] That is of course. But if I were to go into a Bell-and-Everett National-Union party meeting, as vast as this, and ask for a vote of confidence of James Buchanan, they would say No, just as emphatically as you do. In the demonstration for Mr. Douglas, which is to be made here day after to-morrow—I shall not be here, and would not have the right to appear if I were—but any of you have the right by their leave, and you ought not to do it without, to offer and put to vote a resolution of confidence in James Buchanan, and you would get precisely the same negative response that you get here, only a little louder. [Applause and laughter.] Then the people are not going to elect Mr. Breckinridge, because he proposes to follow in the footsteps of Mr. Buchanan, who is rejected. Grant, however, that owing to some strange misapprehenson, or some strange combination, they may obtain all they hope, and indirectly, if not directly make Mr. Breckinridge President. Suppose Mr. Breckinridge is elected. Does that settle the question in favor of slavery? Then you will have the combination, not only of the republicans, and the constitutional union party, and the Douglas party, to drive him out again, [laughter] but you have only postponed the question for four years more under circumstances far more serious, possibly fatal.

You have now disposed of them all except the Douglas party. Mr. Douglas' party is not a positive party. It proposes just what the Bell party propose—to ignore the question in congress. That is just what we find the people will not do, and will not be content to do under John Bell. Why should they like it better under Mr. Douglas? Mr. Douglas and his party say there is a better way. They don't want it ignored, but that it belongs to the territories, and they can settle it better and more wisely than we can. What can they do? Have they settled it in their territories in favor of slavery? Are you, the people of the free states, going to consent to that? If they were, why did they not consent to the proposition of the President, that the people of Kansas should be subjected to slavery under the Lecompton constitution? Then, they said, that was the act of the people. But if the people of the territory should decide in favor of freedom, are the slave states going to acquiesce? No, because they have their candidate in the person of Mr. Breckinridge to continue the war, until they shall regain the lost battle.

But Mr. Douglas' proposition may result in a different way. He says, if I understand him rightly, that it is immaterial to him, at least, he has no right and does not propose to decide upon the question, whether they vote slavery up or down. [Laughter.] Then they will vote slavery up in some territories, and vote it down in some other territories. That, fellow citizens, will be compromise; are you going to be satisfied with a new compromise? You have tried them, and found that they are never kept. On the whole, you are very sorry that they were ever made.

But is a compromise that is brought about in that way, the irresponsible act of squatter sovereignty in the territories, to satisfy the slave states? They have repudiated Mr. Douglas, the ablest man among them all, they have repudiated him altogether, because they will not be satisfied with a squatter sovereignty that gives any territory whatever to the free states.

I have now demonstrated to you, I think, that the republican party is the only positive party. But I can show it by another argument. The republican party has one faith, one creed, one baptism, one candidate, and will have but one victory. [Applause.] The power of slavery has three creeds, three faiths, and is to have three victories. [Laughter.] They have openly confessed, or, rather, the secret leaks out, through conversations and consultations; that they do not expect to get a single victory, any more than you expect they will. All their hope and endeavor is to defeat the republican party, and take the chances for a share of the fruits to result from your defeat. [Applause.]

Suppose they should, by combinations and coalitions, secure the defeat of the republican party, are you going to stay defeated? [Cries of no, no.] You have been defeated once, have you not? Can you not bear another defeat? [Yes, half a dozen of them.] You will not have to I am sure. [Laughter] But I am supposing for the purpose of argument that we are defeated by a coalition. Did any one ever know a cause that was lost when it was defeated by a coalition? [No.] There was a coalition in Europe five years ago in which Hungary was defeated by the coalition of Austria with Russia; but Hungary has risen up again to-day, and the coalition is understood to be dissolved. [Applause.] There was a coalition two or three years later, in which Russia was defeated by the combination of France and England, but Russia is just as strong, just as steadily pressing on upon Constantinople, to-day, as she has been every day from the time of the Czar Peter until now. And while she has abated nothing of her purposes, and nothing of hope, and has gained strength. So, all the efforts of the statesmen of both France and England, are required to keep them from falling out with each other before the battle begins. There is no danger, and not much disgrace in being beaten by coalitions; and there is no danger, because they are coalitions. The more the coalitions are necessary, the less are they effectual. One party is always stronger than two other parties, in a contest, unless the whole result is staked upon a single battle.

But, fellow citizens, the explanation of the whole matter is, that there is a time when the nation needs and will require and demand the settlement of subjects of contention. That time has come at last, when the parties in this country, both of the free states and of the slaveholding states, both the free laboring man and of the slaveholder, will require an end—a settlement of the conflict. It must be repressed. The time has come to repress it. The people will have it repressed. They are not to be forever disputing upon old issues and controversies. New subjects for national action will come up. This controversy must be settled and ended. The republican party is the agent, and its success will terminate the contest about slavery in the new states. Let this battle be decided in favor of freedom in the territories, and not one slave will ever be carried into the territories of the United States, and that will end the irrepressible conflict. (Great applause.)

And because it is necessary that it should be done, is exactly the reason why it will be done. It cannot be settled otherwise, because it involves a question of justice and of conscience. It is for us not merely a question of policy, but a question of moral right and duty. It is wrong, in our judgment, to perpetuate by our votes, or to extend slavery.

It is a very different thing when the slaveholder proposes to extend slavery, for that is, with him, only a question of merchandise. Men, of whatever race or nation, in our estimation, are men, not merchandise. According to our faith, they all have a natural right to be men; but in the estimation of the other party African slaves are not men, but merchandize. It is, therefore, nothing more or less with them than a tariff question—question of protecting commerce. With us it is a question of human rights; and therefore, when it is settled, it will stay settled just as every question that is settled in favor of the right always does.

But if it be taken merely as a matter of policy, it is equally plain that it will be settled in favor of the republican side, because our honest policy is the development of the resources and the increase of the population, wealth and strength of the republic. Every man sees for himself, and no man need be told that the coal, the iron, the lead, the copper, the gold and the silver in our mountains and plains are to be dug out by human hands; and that the only human hands which can dig them is the hand of a freeman. (Great applause.)

Every man sees that this wealth and strength and greatness are to be acquired by human labor, guided by human intelligence and human purpose. Every man knows that the slave, even if he be a white man, will have neither the strength nor the intelligence, nor the virtue to care to be wealthy, for the slave has a simple line of interest before him; it is to effect the least and consume the most. (Hear, hear.)

But, fellow citizens, I seem myself to have fallen below the dignity and greatness of this question in discussing a proposition whether slave labor or free labor is the more expedient, or more necessary. Let me rise once more, and remind you that we are building a new and great empire—not building it as modern Rome and Paris and Naples stand upon the ruins and over the graves of tenfold greater multitudes of men than those who now occupy their sites, but upon a soil where we are the first possessors and the first architects. The tomb and the catacomb in Rome and Paris and Naples are filled with relics and implements of human torture and human bondage, showing the ignorance and the barbarity of their former occupants. Let us, on the other hand, build up an empire that shall leave no monument or relic among our graves, and no trace in our history, to prove that we were false to the interests of humanity. Human nature is entitled to a home on this earth somewhere. Where else shall it be, if it not be here? Human nature is entitled, among all nations of the earth, to have a nation that will truly represent, defend and vindicate it. What other nation shall it be, if it be not ours?

People of Illinois! People of the great West! You are all youthful, vigorous and generous. Your states are youthful, vigorous and virtuous. The destinies of our country, the hopes of mankind, the hopes of humanity rest upon you. Ascend, I pray! you I conjure! you to the dignity of that high responsibility. Thus acting, you will have peace and harmony and happiness in your future years. The world, looking on, will applaud you, and future generations in all ages and in all regions will rise up and call you blessed. (Long continued cheering.)

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.

John Cochrane has received the Breckinridge nomination for congress in the 6th district. Paul P. Bradley had delined.—Chochrane had previously been nominated at Mozart Hall.

The Bell and Everett men of the 3d district have nominated Geo. Hewett for congress.

Francis Duffy, a deputy sheriff, is under arrest for the attempted murder of Jas. L. Dorkesn of Brooklyn.

Peter H. Sabook was dangerously burned in attempting to extinguish a fire in Lightbody's Ink Manufactory on 16th street, on Sunday.

ALBANY, Oct. 8.

The canal tolls for the fourth week in September were $121,144, for same week last year $71,162. Aggregate receipts to October 1st, 1860 $2,033,412, same time in 1859 $1,145,210.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 7.

The returns from Florida election come in slow. The result is uncertain. The Quincy (Florida) Republic says the people at Gadsden, Liberty, Jackson and Washington Counties are organizing a force to operate against a band of desparadoes who are committing outrages in Calhoun county. Many murders have been committed in Jackson county. The military have been called out.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.

Flour market about 5c better. Sales 4000 bbls, 5,30a5,35 super state, 5,35a5,55 extra state, 5,25a5,35 super western, 5,50a5,70 common to medium extra western, 5,70a5,75 inferior to good shipping brands extra R. H. Ohio. MILWAUKEE, Oct. 8.

Wheat rather quiet at Saturday's closing prices, and buyers indisposed to operate except at a slight concession, which holders were indisposed to grant. Principal transactions confined to No. 1 in bags delivered at 95. A few cars of buckwheat were taken at 93½a94 for No. 1, and 91½ for No. 2. Milling wheat in moderate request at 95a96 for club, and 97 choice extra. Flour remains quiet, and holders disposed to be firm.

The official returns of the several prominent western cities, for 1850 and 1860, are as follows:

CITIES.	1850.	1860.
St. Louis,	77,860	162,179
Cincinnati,	115,436	160,060
Chicago,	28,630	109,420
Louisville,	44,199	75,196
Milwaukee,	20,060	45,000
Detroit,	21,019	46,834
Cleveland,	17,034	45,550

Or an increase in the population of St. Louis since 1850 of about 110 per cent., Cincinnati 40 per cent., Louisville 75 per cent., Milwaukee 125 per cent., Detroit 125 per cent., Cleveland 230 per cent., Chicago 290 per cent.

REV. MR. BEWLEY NOT HUNG.—The following paragraph from the Central (St. Louis) Christian Advocate of this week will be read with pleasure by all who have been shocked at the report of his assassination by a mob in Texas. The Advocate says:

In a postscript of a letter from the Rev. G. W. Fisher, dated Urbana, Mo., and postmarked Sept, 20th, we have the following: "We have it from good authority that Bro. Bewley is not hung, unless within three days. He is in the custody of an unfeeling clan of pro-slavery men. But he is also closely watched by his friends."

A VALUABLE ACCESSION.—It affords us much pleasure to record the accession of ex-mayor Joseph Jackson, of Oshkosh, to the republican ranks. He has been a prominent and efficient democrat through all the phases of the party, from "addition to destruction," (as friend Orton would say,) and has finally taken open ground with the republicans, like an honest and conscientious man as he is. At the meeting at Winneconne, last week, to hear Mr. Codding, he put on the uniform of the Wide Awakes, joined their ranks, and proclaimed himself from that time forward a republican.

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate, than that these people [slaves] are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Notion, habit, opinion, have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the progress of emancipation and deportation, peaceably, and in a slow degree, as that the evil will wear off insensibly, and their places be, pari passu, filled up by free white laborers.—Life of Thos. Jefferson, by Gov. Tucker, Prof. in the University of Va., 1837.

DIED.

In Janesville, on Sunday, October 7th, Mr. JOSEPH BURDICK, aged 84 years.

The funeral will be attended at the house of his son, Col. Z. P. Burdick, to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.—Friends are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ladies Please Make Note of It.

THE WHEELER & WILSON Sewing Machine, amid a host of competitors, received the First Premium of the United States Fair, held at Cincinnati, the Illinois State Fair, the Wisconsin State Fair, the Chicago Mechanic's Institute and scores of County Fairs held this fall throughout the West. The beauty, simplicity, durability and utility of this machine becomes more and more apparent by comparison with others.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

LOCAL MATTERS.

ACCIDENT BY A THRESHING MACHINE.—Saturday, while Mr. Charles Sperry, who lives between Footville and Evansville, was employed about a threshing machine, he slipped and his arm caught in the gearing of the cylinder. The arm was very much torn below the elbow, and so much injured above as to require amputation near the shoulder. By some means, the skull of Mr. S. was also fractured, and he received some severe bruises upon his body. The arm was amputated by Drs. Treat & Gregory, and this morning the indications were favorable to his recovery.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE CONTINENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY.—This sterling old company has declared a dividend to policy holders for the year ending July 1st, 1860, of 45 per cent. Holders of participating policies will receive their scrip or its equivalent in cash, by calling at the office of E. L. Dimock, insurance and real estate agent.

A GOOD STOCK OF BOOTS AND SHOES.—Those who want boots and shoes this fall, (and who does not?) will find a large assortment at Miner's, who always keeps a good stock of his own manufacture, as well as a great variety of the most fashionable kinds procured from the east. We notice that he is now opening a choice lot which he assures us are just right for the fall weather. Give him a call.

ACCIDENT.—John Churchill, an employee of the M. & M. R. R. Co., was run over by a freight car, at the depot in Prairie du Chien, on Tuesday of last week, and was so badly injured that he lived but a short time.

MILITARY.—To-morrow evening, (Tuesday) is the evening for the military meeting. Members are requested and expected to be punctual in their attendance. A report concerning arms and equipments may be expected.

BRASS KEY FOUND.—A brass key has been left at this office for an owner.

MILWAUKEE HORSE SHOW.—This show was less successful than the Janesville exhibition. The weather was unfavorable and the attendance slim. A. Hyatt Smith was awarded the 2d premium ($30) in class 27 on matched horses, and J. M. Larned the same premium in class 28.

☞ The failure of the Artizans' Bank in New York, for some days thereafter excited a depressing effect on the whole stock market of both railway companies and banking corporations.

DOUGLAS IN WISCONSIN.—Arrangements have been made by which Judge Douglas will visit Beloit, by regular train, on Friday the 12th inst., at which place he will stop for a few minutes and address the citizens of the place; after which he will proceed to this city, arriving here at 1:45 p. m., making a stop of about two hours, and will address the people. From this city he will go to Milwaukee, arriving there at 7 or 7½ o'clock p. m.; thence by the La Crosse railroad to Oshkosh, arriving there at 1 o'clock p. m., on Saturday the 13th inst., returning at 6 o'clock, and arriving at Fond du Lac at 7 p. m., where he will address the people in the evening, and thence proceed via C. & N. W. R. R. to Chicago, making brief stops at the way stations.—Democrat.

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON'S LAND AND NIGGERS.—Herschel V. Johnson's plantation in Jefferson county, Georgia, contains 3,652 acres of land, valued at $25,000, and has upon it 217 slaves, worth $93,600. In addition he has about $5,000 worth of horses, mules, &c. The annual income is about $19,000.

Coal is so plenty at Pike's Peak that it sells for $5 per ton.

Dick—"I say, Jack, suppose three bad eggs and a pair of old boots were boiled down in a gallon of Croton, how do you think it would compare with Saratoga water?"

Jack—(reflectingly.)—"It wants another egg."

If this mixture should fail to come up to "proof," an experiment with the Kaukana spring, as analyzed by Mr. Shelton of this city, while on his trip to Green Bay, would be successful.

PROVOKING LOSS.—E. N. Marsh, while feeding his thrashing machine near this village last Saturday, was so unfortunate as to have the buckskin strip attached to his gold watch get caught in the machine, of course taking with it his valuable timepiece, worth sixty dollars. A small piece of the cover, and half a dozen fractions of the works were all that could be found afterward.—Thrashing machines are good things, and so are gold watches; but they don't work well together.—Baraboo Republic.

SHAKERISM A GROUND FOR DIVORCE.—The Boston Traveler of the 12th has the following:

In the supreme court, yesterday afternoon, Robert Crooker was divorced from Sarah Crooker, for desertion. The libel set forth that the libellant was married in 1818 to the respondent, and had by her ten children, but that she, unmindful of her marriage covenant, fled to the Shakers of Canterbury, New Hampshire, a sect professing to believe the relation of husband and wife as void, where she has continued to live.—Under a recent law of the state this is a cause for divorce, which was accordingly decreed.

A Texas judge concluded the trial of a man for murder by sentencing him to be hung that very day. A petition was immediately signed by the bar, jury and people, praying that longer time might be granted the poor prisoner. The judge replied to the petition that "the man had been found guilty; the jail was very unsafe; and besides it was so very uncomfortable he did not think any man ought to be required to stay in it longer than was necessary." That man was hung.

SCRIPTURE FOR DOUGLASITES.—It is not a very good plan to draw on the sacred text on every occasion. But the following, having been handed to us an appropriate text for the Douglas devoters, next November, we do not care to withhold it:

"And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him."—ACTS viii: 2.

By a notice under the list of Mr. Lovejoy's appointments in Illinois, in the Chicago Tribune of the 3d inst., we see it announced that he will speak in Racine on Tuesday, the 9th of the present month.

The supreme court meets to announce decisions on the 15th inst.

Assembly Convention.

A Republican Assembly Convention of the district composed of the towns of Union, Porter, Fulton, Center and Janesville, will be held at the Ball Tavern, in the town of Porter, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19th, at 1 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for Member of the Assembly. By order of Assembly Committee.

October 5th, 1860.

THE NEW YORK FUSION.—One of the jolliest performances that ever took place on any stage was enacted at Albany yesterday. The Douglas state committee met with Mr. S. F. Butterworth and the illustrious Alderman Dayton of Brooklyn, and solemnly completed the famous fusion. In place of Henry S. Randall, an elector at large, the Hon. G. C. Bronson was chosen; probably on account of the freesoil opinions he held in 1848. John H. Brower, S. P. Russell, W. B. Duncan and W. B. Kobbe of this city, and A. B. Conger of Rockland, were put on as district electors, in place of C. H. Collins, Ottendorfer, F. R. Tillon, J. Robinson, J. Anderson and E. Haight, who declined. W. C. Crain of Herkimer was made the candidate for Lieut. Governor, in place of Judge Allen, and that was all.—We are sorry to say that it is a fusion in which the hostile parties are not fused.—The Breckinridge leaders announce that they shall pursue the war to the bitter end, and the Hon. S. F. Butterworth pours the last contempt upon the whole scheme by declaring that Mr. Buchanan's administration is in favor of it. So ends the motley and impossible efforts at fusion in the state of New York. The thing was as unnatural as the mingling of fire and water. The fusers have covered themselves with ridicule. That is the whole story.—N. Y. Tribune.

The New York Day Book tells of two of Douglas' supporters who were converted to Breckinridge by an interview with him recently at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in that city.

They informed him of the terms of union likely to be adopted in this state, when Mr. Douglas denounced them openly and unreservedly. They replied, "Why, Mr. Douglas, your advice would certainly give the state to Lincoln." "Then let it. It will give us the organization in 1864," was Mr. Douglas' reply.

LIEUT. GOV. NOBLE'S APPOINTMENTS IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.—Waterville, Friday, Oct. 5th; Troy, Saturday, Oct. 6th; Lansingburgh, Monday, Oct. 8th; Port Byron, Tuesday, Oct. 9th; Oswego, Friday, Oct. 12th; Peterboro, Saturday, Oct. 13th; Utica, Monday, Oct. 15th; Fort Plain, Tuesday, October, 16th; Belmont, Friday, Oct. 19th; Olean, Saturday, Oct. 20th.

The Cleveland Herald says: "Mrs. Douglas, during her recent stay in this city, attended the Roman catholic cathedral.—During the service a collection was taken up for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Seminary. Mrs. Douglas put her name for $200.

Chicago Market.

Saturday evening, October 6.

The wheat market to-day was steady and firm, with a tolerably active demand both for shipment and by speculators. A decline of 1c in freights caused the former to buy more freely. About 140,000 bushels were sold at 92a93c for No. 2 red winter; 90½c for northwestern club; 85½a89c for No 1 spring; 86a87c for No 2 spring; and 79a80c for rejected—buyers at the close paying 88½c for No. 2, and 80c for No. 3 spring. The flour market was more active, at a decline of 5a10c per barrel.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,			1857,	33½ P ct
2d	"	"	1858,	50 "
3d	"	"	1859,	50 "
4th	"	"	1860,	45 "

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,				$570,383 43
"	1857,	"	"	649,719 54
"	1858,	"	"	751,908 62
"	1859,	"	"	905,681 84
"	1860,	"	"	993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to disturb."

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the territories during their territorial state."—Herschel V. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York.—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 36 deg. 30 min. but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more slave territory than you ever claimed."

Assembly Nominations.

The republicans of the Beloit district have nominated S. S. Northrup, Esq., of Clinton, as their candidate for the assembly. Mr. Northrup is one of the staunch farmers of our county, is a man of ability, and will make a good legislator.

In the south-west district the republicans have nominated James Kirkpatrick, Esq., of Spring Valley. This is an excellent nomination. Mr. Kirkpatrick is a farmer, and an honest, straight-forward and thorough-going republican. The interests of his district will be faithfully attended to, while the general affairs of state legislation will meet with prompt, ready and intelligent action on his part.

The republican assembly nominations have all been made in this county except in the Fulton district, and we congratulate our friends, so far, upon their success in bringing forward their best men. Rock county will this year be as well represented as she ever has been in our state legislature.

ELECTIONS TO-MORROW.—Elections will be held to-morrow in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, for state officers and members of congress. These elections are regarded as important, because they are supposed to foreshadow the result of the presidential elections. The democrats are united in all these states upon their state tickets, while they will be divided at the presidential election, and a defeat of the republicans in any one of these states to-morrow will not, therefore, make it certain that a like result will happen in November.

IMMENSE VINEYARD.—There are about four thousand acres laid out in vineyards in the state of Ohio, of which nearly one-half are in the immediate vicinity of Cincinnati. It is anticipated that with good weather the Ohio vineyards will yield 1,600,000 gallons of wine this year.

A LONG RIDE BY RAIL.—There is now a continuous chain of railroads from Bangor to New Orleans, composed of eighteen independent roads, costing in the aggregate, for 2,344 miles of road, $50,354,084, or nearly one-tenth of the whole railway system in the United States.

The Votes on the Cars.

It is evident that the number of Douglas men in Chicago was not much increased by the demonstration on Friday, from the fact that the votes taken on the trains, running into that city on that day, showed almost as many republicans as democrats. Many republicans visited Chicago on that occasion because they had a curiosity to see Douglas, and as they could indulge this curiosity and attend to such business as they might have at the cost of only a dollar, a large number availed themselves of the opportunity. Hence the great republican strength on every train running into Chicago. Here are some of the votes taken, as reported to the Press and Tribune:

On the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Freeport, a vote was taken which resulted:

Douglas	310
Lincoln	325
Bell	4

This was inclusive of ladies, and comprised every person on the train. It was taken again and of voters only, as follows:

Douglas	197
Lincoln	157
Bell	3

In a car on the St. Louis, Alton and Chicago road of half-fare tickets, the vote stood:

Lincoln	23
Douglas	21
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1

On the morning train over the Galena and Chicago Union railroad, from Fulton City, the whole number of passengers, including women and children, conductor, brakemen, engineer, and fireman, was 96; whole number of votes 52, as follows:

Douglas	24
Lincoln	23
Bell	1
Breckinridge	1
Refused to vote	3

There were but 37 passengers on this train when it arrived at DeKalb. Seven coaches in the train, and an extra locomotive and additional cars, had been provided at one of the stations, in anticipation of the crowd.

On the Pittsburgh, Chicago and Fort Wayne the morning train was tested as follows:

Douglas	312
Lincoln	287

These were of excursionists, at half fare. A second count gave the entire vote of passengers, counting every person on board, and gave Lincoln fifty-seven majority.

The vote taken on the train from Beloit yesterday morning resulted as follows:

	Total.	Voters.
Douglas	196	189
Lincoln	157	130

A vote was taken on the train from Burlington which gave a majority of two for Lincoln, as follows:

Lincoln	54
Douglas	52

On the Chicago and Northwestern railroad the morning train brought one company of fifty "Invincibles" in uniform, notwithstanding which fact the vote stood:

Douglas	223
Lincoln	144

Coming back, on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad on Saturday with the "Invincibles" on board, a vote was taken and resulted as follows:

Douglas	205
Lincoln	146

These facts show that the demonstration was only saved from a most shameful fizzle by the attendance of republicans.

The Douglas Joke.

Every well informed man has regarded Douglas' chances for the presidency as utterly hopeless, and the prospect of his getting the electoral vote of even one state so small that it could not be seen except with the telescopes of wonderful magnifying power which the Douglas men claim to have invented for the purposes of this campaign. The only thing that has relieved the whole concern from being considered the greatest farce ever played was the belief that some of the Douglas men were in earnest. But it seems this was a great mistake. The Democrat comes out this morning and throws off all disguise, treats the Douglas movement as a mere stage trick, not expected to deceive any one.

We have done the Democrat injustice; we have been greatly astonished at its astounding canards, and while we thought it in earnest expressed our opinion of its statements, but it seems it has been trying to sell us. It comes out this morning in its true character, and works the Munchausen vein openly. It says that republicans themselves concede that the Douglas meeting at Chicago infinitely surpassed the Seward demonstration, and that now Old Abe himself gives up Illinois!

Enough said. While we thought the Democrat sincere and meant to deceive we commented on its articles, but now, being satisfied it does not intend to deceive any one, but means to lie so outrageously that the meanest capacity will understand it, and regards the whole Douglas movement as the best joke of the season, we have nothing further to say.

A CONVERSION.—We hear of one conversion to Douglasism by the speech of the Great Squatter at Chicago. A gentleman of this city who has heretofore been for Breckinridge, declares that on the question of slavery, Douglas is just as sound as Breckinridge, and he therefore intends to support the former. We never could see why a Breckinridge interventionist in favor of slavery should object to Douglas, who declares that according to the decision of the supreme court of the United States, slaves being property, stand on an equal footing with all other property; and that there is just as much obligation on the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors, &c. See Congressional Globe 1858–9, part 2, page 1258.

What is the use in going for Breckinridge when Douglas is eminently sound on slave codes for the territories?

☞ There is a rumor that Garibaldi has become reconciled to his wife, and that they are about to live together.

ACCIDENT ON THE LA CROSSE ROAD.—As the mail train was approaching Richfield station on the La Crosse railroad, on the 6th, a fireman named William Cady, fell between the cars and was run over, severing one of his legs from his body, and otherwise injuring him so that he died soon afterwards.

GOV. SEWARD'S SPEECH AT CHICAGO.

hopes upon an adjournment. [Renewed laughter and applause.]

Take the other: Mr. Breckinridge represents a party that proposes a policy the very opposite of ours. They propose to extend slavery and to use the federal government to do it. Let us suppose him elected. Will that satisfy the American people? [cries of "No, no!"] Will that settle the question? [No, no!] That is only what Mr. Buchanan has already done. And if I should put a vote to this audience I am sure I should get no vote of confidence in Mr. Buchanan [No, no, no!] That is of course. But if I were to go into a Bell-and-Everett National-Union party meeting, as vast as this, and ask for a vote of confidence of James Buchanan, they would say No, just as emphatically as you do. In the demonstration for Mr. Douglas, which is to be made here day after to-morrow—I shall not be here, and would not have the right to appear if I were—but any of you have the right by their leave, and you ought not to do it without, to offer and put to vote a resolution of confidence in James Buchanan, and you would get precisely the same negative response that you get here, only a little louder. [Applause and laughter.] Then the people are not going to elect Mr. Breckinridge, because he proposes to follow in the footsteps of Mr. Buchanan, who is rejected. Grant, however, that owing to some strange misapprehenson, or some strange combination, they may obtain all they hope, and indirectly, if not directly make Mr. Breckinridge President. Suppose Mr. Breckinridge is elected. Does that settle the question in favor of slavery? Then you will have the combination, not only of the republicans, and the constitutional union party, and the Douglas party, to drive him out again, [laughter] but you have only postponed the question for four years more under circumstances far more serious, possibly fatal.

You have now disposed of them all except the Douglas party. Mr. Douglas' party is not a positive party. It proposes just what the Bell party propose—to ignore the question in congress. That is just what we find the people will not do, and will not be content to do under John Bell. Why should they like it better under Mr. Douglas? Mr. Douglas and his party say there is a better way. They don't want it ignored, but that it belongs to the territories, and they can settle it better and more wisely than we can. What can they do? Have they settled it in their territories in favor of slavery? Are you, the people of the free states, going to consent to that? If they were, why did they not consent to the proposition of the President, that the people of Kansas should be subjected to slavery under the Lecompton constitution? Then, they said, that was the act of the people. But if the people of the territory should decide in favor of freedom, are the slave states going to acquiesce? No, because they have their candidate in the person of Mr. Breckinridge to continue the war, until they shall regain the lost battle.

But Mr. Douglas' proposition may result in a different way. He says, if I understand him rightly, that it is immaterial to him, at least, he has no right and does not propose to decide upon the question, whether they vote slavery up or down. [Laughter.] Then they will vote slavery up in some territories, and vote it down in some other territories. That, fellow citizens, will be compromise; are you going to be satisfied with a new compromise? You have tried them, and found that they are never kept. On the whole, you are very sorry that they were ever made.

But is a compromise that is brought about in that way, the irresponsible act of squatter sovereignty in the territories, to satisfy the slave states? They have repudiated Mr. Douglas, the ablest man among them all, they have repudiated him altogether, because they will not be satisfied with a squatter sovereignty that gives any territory whatever to the free states.

I have now demonstrated to you, I think, that the republican party is the only positive party. But I can show it by another argument. The republican party has one faith, one creed, one baptism, one candidate, and will have but one victory. [Applause.] The power of slavery has three creeds, three faiths, and is to have three victories. [Laughter.] They have openly confessed, or, rather, the secret leaks out, through conversations and consultations; that they do not expect to get a single victory, any more than you expect they will. All their hope and endeavor is to defeat the republican party, and take the chances for a share of the fruits to result from your defeat. [Applause.]

Suppose they should, by combinations and coalitions, secure the defeat of the republican party, are you going to stay defeated? [Cries of no, no.] You have been defeated once, have you not? Can you not bear another defeat? [Yes, half a dozen of them.] You will not have to I am sure. [Laughter] But I am supposing for the purpose of argument that we are defeated by a coalition. Did any one ever know a cause that was lost when it was defeated by a coalition? [No.] There was a coalition in Europe five years ago in which Hungary was defeated by the coalition of Austria with Russia; but Hungary has risen up again to-day, and the coalition is understood to be dissolved. [Applause.] There was a coalition two or three years later, in which Russia was defeated by the combination of France and England, but Russia is just as strong, just as steadily pressing on upon Constantinople, to-day, as she has been every day from the time of the Czar Peter until now. And while she has abated nothing of her purposes, and nothing of hope, and has gained strength. So, all the efforts of the statesmen of both France and England, are required to keep them from falling out with each other before the battle begins. There is no danger, and not much disgrace in being beaten by coalitions; and there is no danger, because they are coalitions. The more the coalitions are necessary, the less are they effectual. One party is always stronger than two other parties, in a contest, unless the whole result is staked upon a single battle.

But, fellow citizens, the explanation of the whole matter is, that there is a time when the nation needs and will require and demand the settlement of subjects of contention. That time has come at last, when the parties in this country, both of the free states and of the slaveholding states, both the free laboring man and of the slaveholder, will require an end—a settlement of the conflict. It must be repressed. The time has come to repress it. The people will have it repressed. They are not to be forever disputing upon old issues and controversies. New subjects for national action will come up. This controversy must be settled and ended. The republican party is the agent, and its success will terminate the contest about slavery in the new states. Let this battle be decided in favor of freedom in the territories, and not one slave will ever be carried into the territories of the United States, and that will end the irrepressible conflict. (Great applause.)

And because it is necessary that it should be done, is exactly the reason why it will be done. It cannot be settled otherwise, because it involves a question of justice and of conscience. It is for us not merely a question of policy, but a question of moral right and duty. It is wrong, in our judgment, to perpetuate by our votes, or to extend slavery.

It is a very different thing when the slaveholder proposes to extend slavery, for that is, with him, only a question of merchandize. Men, of whatever race or nation, in our estimation, are men, not merchandize. According to our faith, they all have a natural right to be men; but in the estimation of the other party African slaves are not men, but merchandize. It is, therefore, nothing more or less with them than a tariff question—question of protecting commerce. With us it is a question of human rights; and therefore, when it is settled, it will stay settled just as every question that is settled in favor of the right always does.

But if it be taken merely as a matter of policy, it is equally plain that it will be settled in favor of the republican side, because our honest policy is the development of the resources and the increase of the population, wealth and strength of the republic. Every man sees for himself, and no man need be told that the coal, the iron, the lead, the copper, the gold and the silver in our mountains and plains are to be dug out by human hands; and that the only human hands which can dig them is the hand of a freeman. (Great applause.)

Every man sees that this wealth and strength and greatness are to be acquired by human labor, guided by human intelligence and human purpose. Every man knows that the slave, even if he be a white man, will have neither the strength nor the intelligence, nor the virtue to care to be wealthy, for the slave has a simple line of interest before him; it is to effect the least and consume the most. (Hear, hear.)

But, fellow citizens, I seem myself to have fallen below the dignity and greatness of this question in discussing a proposition whether slave labor or free labor is the more expedient, or more necessary. Let me rise once more, and remind you that we are building a new and great empire — not building it as modern Rome and Paris and Naples stand upon the ruins and over the graves of tenfold greater multitudes of men than those who now occupy their sites, but upon a soil where we are the first possessors and the first architects. The tomb and the catacomb in Rome and Paris and Naples are filled with relics and implements of human torture and human bondage, showing the ignorance and the barbarity of their former occupants. Let us, on the other hand, build up an empire that shall leave no monument or relic among our graves, and no trace in our history, to prove that we were false to the interests of humanity. Human nature is entitled to a home on this earth somewhere. Where else shall it be, if it not be here? Human nature is entitled, among all nations of the earth, to have a nation that will truly represent, defend and vindicate it. What other nation shall it be, if it be not ours?

People of Illinois! People of the great West! You are all youthful, vigorous and generous. Your states are youthful, vigorous and virtuous. The destinies of our country, the hopes of mankind, the hopes of humanity rest upon you. Ascend, I pray! you I conjure! you to the dignity of that high responsibility. Thus acting, you will have peace and harmony and happiness in your future years. The world, looking on, will applaud you, and future generations in all ages and in all regions will rise up and call you blessed. (Long continued cheering.)

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.

John Cochrane has received the Breckinridge nomination for congress in the 6th district. Paul P. Bradley had delined.—Chochrane had previously been nominated at Mozart Hall.

The Bell and Everett men of the 3d district have nominated Geo. Hewett for congress.

Francis Duffy, a deputy sheriff, is under arrest for the attempted murder of Jas. L. Dorkeau of Brooklyn.

Peter H. Sabook was dangerously burned in attempting to extinguish a fire in Lightbody's Ink Manufactury on 16th street, on Sunday.

ALBANY, Oct. 8.

The canal tolls for the fourth week in September were $121,144, for same week last year $71,162. Aggregate receipts to October 1st, 1860 $2,033,412, same time in 1859 $1,145,210.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 7.

The returns from Florida election come in slow. The result is uncertain. The Quincy (Florida) Republic says the people at Gadsden, Liberty, Jackson and Washington Counties are organizing a force to operate against a band of desparadoes who are committing outrages in Calhoun county. Many murders have been committed in Jackson county. The military have been called out.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.

Flour market about 5c better. Sales 4000 bbls, 5,30a5,35 super state, 5,35a5,55 extra state, 5,25a5,35 super western, 5,50a5,70 common to medium extra western, 5,70a5,75 inferior to good shipping brands extra R. H. Ohio. Canadian a shade better. Sales 600 bbls, 5,65a7,50 extra.—Wheat receipts 159,162 bu. Market 1a2c better with good export demand, sales 15,000 bu. at 1,18a1,22½ Chicago spring, 1,26a1,26 Mil. club, 1,32a1,33 winter, red western.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 8.

Wheat rather quiet at Saturday's closing prices, and buyers indisposed to operate except at a slight concession, which holders were indisposed to grant. Principal transactions confined to No. 1 in bags delivered at 95. A few cars of buckwheat were taken at 93½a94 for No. 1, and 91½ for No. 2. Milling wheat in moderate request at 95a96 for club, and 97 choice extra. Flour remains quiet, and holders disposed to be firm.

The official returns of the several prominent western cities, for 1850 and 1860, are as follows:

CITIES.	1850.	1860.
St. Louis,	77,860	162,179
Cincinnati,	115,436	160,060
Chicago,	28,630	109,420
Louisville,	44,199	75,196
Milwaukee,	20,060	45,000
Detroit,	21,019	46,834
Cleveland,	17,034	45,550

Or an increase in the population of St. Louis since 1850 of about 110 per cent., Cincinnati 40 per cent., Louisville 75 per cent., Milwaukee 125 per cent., Detroit 125 per cent., Cleveland 230 per cent., Chicago 290 per cent.

REV. MR. BEWLEY NOT HUNG.—The following paragraph from the Central (St. Louis) Christian Advocate of this week will be read with pleasure by all who have been shocked at the report of his assassination by a mob in Texas. The Advocate says:

In a postscript of a letter from the Rev. G. W. Fisher, dated Urbana, Mo., and postmarked Sept. 20th, we have the following: "We have it from good authority that Bro. Bewley is not hung, unless within three days. He is in the custody of an unfeeling clan of pro-slavery men. But he is also closely watched by his friends."

A VALUABLE ACCESSION.—It affords us much pleasure to record the accession of ex-mayor Joseph Jackson, of Oshkosh, to the republican ranks. He has been a prominent and efficient democrat through all the phases of the party, from "addition to destruction," (as friend Orton would say,) and has finally taken open ground with the republicans, like an honest and conscientious man as he is. At the meeting at Winneconne, last week, to hear Mr. Codding, he put on the uniform of the Wide Awakes, joined their ranks, and proclaimed himself from that time forward a republican.

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate, than that these people [slaves] are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Notion, habit, opinion, have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the progress of emancipation and deportation, peaceably, and in a slow degree, as that the evil will wear off insensibly, and their places be, pari passu, filled up by free white laborers.—Life of Thos. Jefferson, by Gov. Tucker, Prof. in the University of Va., 1837.

DIED.

In Janesville, on Sunday, October 7th, Mr. JOSEPH BURDICK, aged 84 years.

The funeral will be attended at the house of his son, Col. Z. P. Burdick, to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.—Friends are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Ladies Please Make Note of It.

THE WHEELER & WILSON Sewing Machine, amid a host of competitors, received the First Premium of the United States Fair, held at Cincinnati, the Illinois State Fair, the Wisconsin State Fair, the Chicago Mechanic's Institute and scores of County Fairs held this fall throughout the West. The beauty, simplicity, durability and utility of this machine becomes more and more apparent by comparison with others.

VOL. 8 Wisconsin Reports, received this day, at NEWELL'S.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stirring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,

Proprietor of the

Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the

Petty Slop Shops

in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Clothing House

has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS

the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the

Cheapest Establishment

of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.

The People of Rock County

are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce

A BOGUS LAW

upon them, to get them to purchase their

Fall and Winter Clothing

from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the

Largest and Best Stock of Clothing

of all kinds, including the finest

CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,

and the best variety of

ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,

of every description, with

Pants and Vests

to match, as well as any quantity of

Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,

and every article of

Wearing Apparrel

that man can want.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

Original Young America Clothing House

does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

An Ordinance

To more fully define the powers and duties of the Chief Engineer and Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department of the City of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The Chief Engineer, and in his absence the assistant engineers, according to their respective appointments, shall examine the fire engines and other apparatus belonging to the city once in each week during the term of his office, and have said engines and apparatus at all times in good working order.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer or one of the assistant engineers, in company with the Mayor of the city, to examine the fire engines and other fire apparatus and engine buildings on the first of every month, and make a joint report to the next meeting thereafter of the common council the condition of the fire department and apparatus.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer to report to the common council, at the first meeting of said council in each month during the term of his office, first, the amount of fuel consumed in each of the engine or hook and ladder houses; second, the amount of gas consumed in each of said houses separately; third, a full statement of the expense of the fire department for the preceding month, and to give directions to the foremen of the several companies as to the heating and lighting of the engine houses.

SEC. 4. The fire engines and other apparatus belonging to this city shall not be taken outside of the city limits of the city for any purpose whatever (except for the purpose of extinguishing fires in the vicinity of the city) without the consent of the common council, obtained on application of the chief engineer and foreman of the company so applying at a regular or special meeting of the common council.

SEC. 5. All engines, hose carts, trucks, hooks and ladders and other property connected with the fire department, and belonging to the city, shall be under the control of the chief engineer, and in case of his absence from the city or in case of a vacancy in his office, under the charge of the first assistant engineer, subject always to the order of the common council.—Passed Sept 1, 1860.

Attest, F. BARBREE, R. B. TREAT,
sep4d1aw3t Clerk. Mayor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Accident by a Threshing Machine.—Saturday, while Mr. Charles Sperry, who lives between Footville and Evansville, was employed about a threshing machine, he slipped and his arm caught in the gearing of the cylinder. The arm was very much torn below the elbow, and so much injured above as to require amputation near the shoulder. By some means, the skull of Mr. S. was also fractured, and he received some severe bruises upon his body. The arm was amputated by Drs. Treat & Gregory, and this morning the indications were favorable to his recovery.

To the Patrons of the Continental Insurance Company.—This sterling old company has declared a dividend to policy holders for the year ending July 1st, 1860, of 45 per cent. Holders of participating policies will receive their scrip or its equivalent in cash, by calling at the office of E. L. Dimock, insurance and real estate agent.

A Good Stock of Boots and Shoes.—Those who want boots and shoes this fall, (and who does not?) will find a large assortment at Miner's, who always keeps a good stock of his own manufacture, as well as a great variety of the most fashionable kinds procured from the east. We notice that he is now opening a choice lot which he assures us are just right for the fall weather. Give him a call.

Accident.—John Churchill, an employee of the M. & M. R. R. Co., was run over by a freight car, at the depot in Prairie du Chien, on Tuesday of last week, and was so badly injured that he lived but a short time.

Military.—To-morrow evening, (Tuesday) is the evening for the military meeting. Members are requested and expected to be punctual in their attendance. A report concerning arms and equipments may be expected.

Brass Key Found.—A brass key has been left at this office for an owner.

Milwaukee Horse Show.—This show was less successful than the Janesville exhibition. The weather was unfavorable and the attendance slim. A. Hyatt Smith was awarded the 2d premium ($30) in class 27 on matched horses, and J. M. Larned the same premium in class 28.

☞ The failure of the Artizans' Bank in New York, for some days thereafter excited a depressing effect on the whole stock market of both railway companies and banking corporations.

Douglas in Wisconsin.—Arrangements have been made by which Judge Douglas will visit Beloit, by regular train, on Friday the 12th inst., at which place he will stop for a few minutes and address the citizens of the place; after which he will proceed to this city, arriving here at 1:45 p. m., making a stop of about two hours, and will address the people. From this city he will go to Milwaukee, arriving there at 7 or 7½ o'clock p. m.; thence by the La Crosse railroad to Oshkosh, arriving there at 1 o'clock p. m., on Saturday the 13th inst., returning at 6 o'clock, and arriving at Fond du Lac at 7 p. m., where he will address the people in the evening, and thence proceed via C. & N. W. R. R. to Chicago, making brief stops at the way stations.—Democrat.

Herschel V. Johnson's Land and Niggers.—Herschel V. Johnson's plantation in Jefferson county, Georgia, contains 3,652 acres of land, valued at $25,000, and has upon it 217 slaves, worth $93,600. In addition he has about $5,000 worth of horses, mules, &c. The annual income is about $19,000.

Coal is so plenty at Pike's Peak that it sells for $5 per ton.

Dick—"I say, Jack, suppose three bad eggs and a pair of old boots were boiled down in a gallon of Croton, how do you think it would compare with Saratoga water?"

Jack—(reflectingly.)—"It wants another egg."

If this mixture should fail to come up to "proof," an experiment with the Kaukana spring, as analyzed by Mr. Shelton of this city, while on his trip to Green Bay, would be successful.

Provoking Loss.—E. N. Marsh, while feeding his thrashing machine near this village last Saturday, was so unfortunate as to have the buckskin strip attached to his gold watch get caught in the machine, of course taking with it his valuable timepiece, worth sixty dollars. A small piece of the cover, and half a dozen fractions of the works were all that could be found afterward.—Thrashing machines are good things, and so are gold watches; but they don't work well together.—Baraboo Republic.

Shakerism a Ground for Divorce.—The Boston Traveler of the 12th has the following:

In the supreme court, yesterday afternoon, Robert Crooker was divorced from Sarah Crooker, for desertion. The libel set forth that the libellant was married in 1818 to the respondent, and had by her ten children, but that she, unmindful of her marriage covenant, fled to the Shakers of Canterbury, New Hampshire, a sect professing to believe the relation of husband and wife as void, where she has continued to live.—Under a recent law of the state this is a cause for divorce, which was accordingly decreed.

A Texas judge concluded the trial of a man for murder by sentencing him to be hung that very day. A petition was immediately signed by the bar, jury and people, praying that longer time might be granted the poor prisoner. The judge replied to the petition that "the man had been found guilty; the jail was very unsafe; and besides it was so very uncomfortable he did not think any man ought to be required to stay in it longer than was necessary." That man was hung.

Scripture for Douglasites.—It is not a very good plan to draw on the sacred text on every occasion. But the following, having been handed to us an appropriate text for the Douglas devotees, next November, we do not care to withhold it:

"And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him."—Acts viii: 2.

By a notice under the list of Mr. Lovejoy's appointments in Illinois, in the Chicago Tribune of the 3d inst., we see it announced that he will speak in Racine on Tuesday, the 9th of the present month.

The supreme court meets to announce decisions on the 15th inst.

Assembly Convention.

A Republican Assembly Convention of the district composed of the towns of Union, Porter, Fulton, Center and Janesville, will be held at the Ball Tavern, in the town of Porter, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19th, at 1 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for Member of the Assembly. By order of Assembly Committee.

October 5th, 1860.

The New York Fusion.—One of the jolliest performances that ever took place on any stage was enacted at Albany yesterday. The Douglas state committee met with Mr. S. F. Butterworth and the illustrious Alderman Dayton of Brooklyn, and solemnly completed the famous fusion. In place of Henry S. Randall, an elector at large, the Hon. G. C. Bronson was chosen; probably on account of the freesoil opinions he held in 1848. John H. Brower, S. P. Russell, W. B. Duncan and W. B. Kobbe of this city, and A. B. Conger of Rockland, were put on as district electors, in place of C. H. Collins, Ottendorfer, F. R. Tillon, J. Robinson, J. Anderson and E. Haight, who declined. W. C. Crain of Herkimer was made the candidate for Lieut. Governor, in place of Judge Allen, and that was all.—We are sorry to say that it is a fusion in which the hostile parties are not fused.—The Breckinridge leaders announce that they shall pursue the war to the bitter end, and the Hon. S. F. Butterworth pours the last contempt upon the whole scheme by declaring that Mr. Buchanan's administration is in favor of it. So ends the motley and impossible efforts at fusion in the state of New York. The thing was as unnatural as the mingling of fire and water. The fusers have covered themselves with ridicule. That is the whole story.—N. Y. Tribune.

The New York Day Book tells of two of Douglas' supporters who were converted to Breckinridge by an interview with him recently at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in that city.

They informed him of the terms of union likely to be adopted in this state, when Mr. Douglas denounced them openly and unreservedly. They replied, "Why, Mr. Douglas, your advice would certainly give the state to Lincoln." "Then let it. It will give us the organization in 1864," was Mr. Douglas' reply.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little comming forward.

Chicago Market.

Saturday evening, October 6.

The wheat market to-day was steady and firm, with a tolerably active demand both for shipment and by speculators. A decline of 1c in freights caused the former to buy more freely. About 140,000 bushels were sold at 92a93c for No. 2 red winter; 90½c for northwestern club; 88½a89c for No 1 spring; 86a87c for No 2 spring; and 79a80c for rejected—buyers at the close paying 86½c for No. 2, and 80c for No. 1 spring. The flour market was more active, at a decline of 5a10c per barrel.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33⅓ ₩ ct
2d " " "	1858,	50 "
3d " " "	1859,	50 "
4th " " "	1860,	45 "

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,	$570,363 48
" 1857, " " "	649,719 64
" 1858, " " "	751,908 62
" 1859, " " "	905,681 84
" 1860, " " "	993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.

LOCAL MATTERS.

ACCIDENT BY A THRESHING MACHINE.—Saturday, while Mr. Charles Sperry, who lives between Footville and Evansville, was employed about a threshing machine, he slipped and his arm caught in the gearing of the cylinder. The arm was very much torn below the elbow, and so much injured above as to require amputation near the shoulder. By some means, the skull of Mr. S. was also fractured, and he received some severe bruises upon his body. The arm was amputated by Drs. Treat & Gregory, and this morning the indications were favorable to his recovery.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE CONTINENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY.—This sterling old company has declared a dividend to policy holders for the year ending July 1st, 1860, of 45 per cent. Holders of participating policies will receive their scrip or its equivalent in cash, by calling at the office of E. L. Dimock, insurance and real estate agent.

A GOOD STOCK OF BOOTS AND SHOES.—Those who want boots and shoes this fall, (and who does not?) will find a large assortment at Miner's, who always keeps a good stock of his own manufacture, as well as a great variety of the most fashionable kinds procured from the east. We notice that he is now opening a choice lot which he assures us are just right for the fall weather. Give him a call.

ACCIDENT.—John Churchill, an employee of the M. & M. R. R. Co., was run over by a freight car, at the depot in Prairie du Chien, on Tuesday of last week, and was so badly injured that he lived but a short time.

MILITARY.—To-morrow evening, (Tuesday) is the evening for the military meeting. Members are requested and expected to be punctual in their attendance. A report concerning arms and equipments may be expected.

BRASS KEY FOUND.—A brass key has been left at this office for an owner.

MILWAUKEE HORSE SHOW.—This show was less successful than the Janesville exhibition. The weather was unfavorable and the attendance slim. A. Hyatt Smith was awarded the 2d premium ($30) in class 27 on matched horses, and J. M. Larned the same premium in class 28.

☞ The failure of the Artizans' Bank in New York, for some days thereafter excited a depressing effect on the whole stock market of both railway companies and banking corporations.

DOUGLAS IN WISCONSIN.—Arrangements have been made by which Judge Douglas will visit Beloit, by regular train, on Friday the 12th inst., at which place he will stop for a few minutes and address the citizens of the place; after which he will proceed to this city, arriving here at 1:45 p. m., making a stop of about two hours, and will address the people. From this city he will go to Milwaukee, arriving there at 7 or 7½ o'clock p. m.; thence by the La Crosse railroad to Oshkosh, arriving there at 1 o'clock p. m., on Saturday the 13th inst., returning at 6 o'clock, and arriving at Fond du Lac at 7 p. m., where he will address the people in the evening, and thence proceed via C. & N. W. R. R. to Chicago, making brief stops at the way stations.—Democrat.

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON'S LAND AND NEGROES.—Herschel V. Johnson's plantation in Jefferson county, Georgia, contains 3,652 acres of land, valued at $25,000, and has upon it 217 slaves, worth $93,600. In addition he has about $5,000 worth of horses, mules, &c. The annual income is about $19,000.

Coal is so plenty at Pike's Peak that it sells for $5 per ton.

Dick—"I say, Jack, suppose three bad eggs and a pair of old boots were boiled down in a gallon of Croton, how do you think it would compare with Saratoga water?"

Jack—(reflectingly.)—"It wants another egg."

If this mixture should fail to come up to "proof," an experiment with the Kaukana spring, as analyzed by Mr. Shelton of this city, while on his trip to Green Bay, would be successful.

PROVOKING LOSS.—E. N. Marsh, while feeding his thrashing machine near this village last Saturday, was so unfortunate as to have the buckskin strip attached to his gold watch get caught in the machine, of course taking with it his valuable timepiece, worth sixty dollars. A small piece of the cover, and half a dozen fractions of the works were all that could be found afterward.—Thrashing machines are good things, and so are gold watches; but they don't work well together.—Baraboo Republic.

SHAKERISM A GROUND FOR DIVORCE.—The Boston Traveler of the 12th has the following:

In the supreme court, yesterday afternoon, Robert Crooker was divorced from Sarah Crooker, for desertion. The libel set forth that the libellant was married in 1818 to the respondent, and had by her ten children, but that she, unmindful of her marriage covenant, fled to the Shakers of Canterbury, New Hampshire, a sect professing to believe the relation of husband and wife as void, where she has continued to live.—Under a recent law of the state this is a cause for divorce, which was accordingly decreed.

A Texas judge concluded the trial of a man for murder by sentencing him to be hung that very day. A petition was immediately signed by the bar, jury and people, praying that longer time might be granted the poor prisoner. The judge replied to the petition that "the man had been found guilty; the jail was very unsafe; and besides it was so very uncomfortable he did not think any man ought to be required to stay in it longer than was necessary." That man was hung.

SCRIPTURE FOR DOUGLASITES.—It is not a very good plan to draw on the sacred text on every occasion. But the following, having been handed to us an appropriate text for the Douglas devotees, next November, we do not care to withhold it:

"And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him."—ACTS viii: 2.

By a notice under the list of Mr. Lovejoy's appointments in Illinois, in the Chicago Tribune of the 3d inst., we see it announced that he will speak in Racine on Tuesday, the 9th of the present month.

The supreme court meets to announce decisions on the 15th inst.

Assembly Convention.

A Republican Assembly Convention of the district composed of the towns of Union, Porter, Fulton, Center and Janesville, will be held at the Ball Tavern, in the town of Porter, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19th, at 1 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate for Member of the Assembly. By order of Assembly Committee.
October 5th, 1860.

THE NEW YORK FUSION.—One of the jolliest performances that ever took place on any stage was enacted at Albany yesterday. The Douglas state committee met with Mr. S. F. Butterworth and the illustrious Alderman Dayton of Brooklyn, and solemnly completed the famous fusion. In place of Henry S. Randall, an elector at large, the Hon. G. C. Bronson was chosen; probably on account of the freesoil opinions he held in 1848. John H. Brower, S. P. Russell, W. B. Duncan and W. B. Kobbe of this city, and A. B. Conger of Rockland, were put on as district electors, in place of C. H. Collins, Ottendorfer, F. R. Tillon, J. Robinson, J. Anderson and E. Haight, who declined. W. C. Crain of Herkimer was made the candidate for Lieut. Governor, in place of Judge Allen, and that was all.—We are sorry to say that it is a fusion in which the hostile parties are not fused.—The Breckinridge leaders announce that they shall pursue the war to the bitter end, and the Hon. S. F. Butterworth pours the last contempt upon the whole scheme by declaring that Mr. Buchanan's administration is in favor of it. So ends the motley and impossible efforts at fusion in the state of New York. The thing was as unnatural as the mingling of fire and water. The fusers have covered themselves with ridicule. That is the whole story.—N. Y. Tribune.

The New York Day Book tells of two of Douglas' supporters who were converted to Breckinridge by an interview with him recently at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in that city.

They informed him of the terms of union likely to be adopted in this state, when Mr. Douglas denounced them openly and unreservedly. They replied, "Why, Mr. Douglas, your advice would certainly give the state to Lincoln." "Then let it. It will give us the organization in 1864," was Mr. Douglas' reply.

LIEUT. GOV. NOBLE'S APPOINTMENTS IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.—Waterville, Friday, Oct. 5th; Troy, Saturday, Oct. 6th; Lansingburgh, Monday, Oct. 8th; Port Byron, Tuesday, Oct. 9th; Oswego, Friday, Oct. 12th; Peterboro, Saturday, Oct. 13th; Utica, Monday, Oct. 15th; Fort Plain, Tuesday, October, 16th; Belmont, Friday, Oct. 19th; Olean, Saturday, Oct. 20th.

The Cleveland Herald says: "Mrs. Douglas, during her recent stay in this city, attended the Roman catholic cathedral.—During the service a collection was taken up for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Seminary. Mrs. Douglas put her name for $200.

Chicago Market.

Saturday evening, October 6.

The wheat market to-day was steady and firm, with a tolerably active demand both for shipment and by speculators. A decline of 1c in freights caused the former to buy more freely. About 140,000 bushels were sold at 92a93c for No. 2 red winter; 90½c for northwestern club; 86½a89c for No 1 spring; 86a87c for No 2 spring; and 79a80c for rejected—buyers at the close paying 86½c for No. 2, and 89c for No. 1 spring. The flour market was more active, at a decline of 5a10c per barrel.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,		1857,	33⅓ P ct
2d	" " "	1858,	50 "
3d	" " "	1859,	50 "
4th	" " "	1860,	45 "

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,			$570,363 43
"	1857, " " "		649,710 54
"	1858, " " "		751,908 52
"	1859, " " "		905,681 84
"	1860, " " "		993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.

Therefore, as this splendid stock has been bought cheap, we can OFFER GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO CUSTOMERS!

We extend an invitation to all the old friends and customers of the house to give us a call, and we flatter ourselves that we have the experience, the ability, and the means to build up a wide-spread reputation, and not only keep the old customers of the house, but add more every day. apr25dawtf

BENTON'S CIGARS!
THE PLACE TO FIND THEM!
New Establishment!

THE undersigned having dissolved the co-partnership existing between himself and W. P. Woodward, has the pleasure of announcing to the citizens of Janesville, the people of Rock county, and the world at large, that he has opened a

An Ordinance

To more fully define the powers and duties of the Chief Engineer and Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department of the City of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The Chief Engineer, and in his absence the assistant engineers, according to their respective appointments, shall examine the fire engines and other apparatus belonging to the city once in each week during the term of his office, and have said engines and apparatus at all times in good working order.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer or one of the assistant engineers, in company with the Mayor of the city, to examine the fire engines and other fire apparatus and engine buildings on the first of every month, and make a joint report to the next meeting thereafter of the common council the condition of the fire department and apparatus.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer to report to the common council, at the first meeting of said council in each month during the term of his office, first, the amount of fuel consumed in each of the engine or hook and ladder houses; second, the amount of gas consumed in each of said houses separately; third, a full statement of the expense of the fire department for the preceding month, and to give directions to the foremen of the several companies as to the heating and lighting of the engine houses.

SEC. 4. The fire engines and other apparatus belonging to this city shall not be taken outside of the city limits of the city for any purpose whatever (except for the purpose of extinguishing fires in the vicinity of the city) without the consent of the common council, obtained on application of the chief engineer and foreman of the company so applying at a regular or special meeting of the common council.

SEC. 5. All engines, hose carts, trucks, hooks and ladders and other property connected with the fire department, and belonging to the city, shall be under the control of the chief engineer, and in case of his absence from the city or in case of a vacancy in his office, under the charge of the first assistant engineer, subject always to the order of the common council.—Passed Sept 1, 1860.
